

I wanted to voice my concern with the attempts to reverse the net neutrality regulations. I am against removal of these protections or taking the efforts to remove ISPs from the Title II state they are currently in. These regulations protect us and taking them away will both hurt consumers and degrade services across the US.

Monday, May 08, 2017 9:23 PM